PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT
KRABLOONIK RESTAURANT & DOG SLEDDING HOSTS
"AN OPEN HOUSE FOR HAITI" TO BENEFIT MERCY & SHARING AND HAITI'S ORPHANS

You are invited to attend "An Open House For Haiti", a fund-raising benefit at Krabloonik Restaurant and Dog Sledding for the benefit of Mercy & Sharing, this Sunday January 24, 2010 from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. For a donation Krabloonik is offering a buffet and exciting dog sled rides, available on a first come/first served basis, throughout the day.

All proceeds will benefit Mercy & Sharing, an Aspen-based Foundation dedicated to the loving care of Haiti's abandoned and ailing children. A donation of $50 for the buffet, $100 for the dog sled rides and $150 for both buffet and dog sledding is strongly suggested.

For over a decade, Mercy & Sharing has provided life-saving aid to Haiti's impoverished children. This includes basic necessities of life, such as water, food, clothing, medical care and education. They operate schools, orphanages and clinics in extremely poor and ravaged areas of Port-au-Prince and remote areas of Haiti. The devastating earthquake has magnified what are normally harsh conditions. Krabloonik and Mercy & Sharing seeks your support to help them deal with this crisis.

Krabloonik Restaurant & Dog Sledding, owned and operated by Dan MacEachen, is now in its 35th illustrious year of operation. Dan is a well-known and respected authority in the dog sledding community. He is a 7 time veteran of the Iditarod, an 1,100 mile dog sled race through the Alaskan wilderness, often called the "Last Great Race On Earth." Krabloonik staff is donating their days wages and tips to this event and Krabloonik will donate all proceeds to Mercy & Sharing. In turn Mercy and Sharing funnels 100% of every dollar raised to the ground based needs in Haiti.
